BRINING BATHROOMS TO LIFE, FOR LIFE

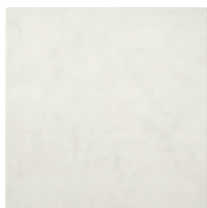

THE NATURALS RANGE PORCELAIN WALL & FLOOR TILES

The Naturals Collection boasts all the aesthetic charm and appeal of real stone and can be used to create a stunning contemporary feel or even add a sense of history to a bathroom setting. Used to create a stunning, single colour backdrop or combined to provide a dramatic multi-coloured effect, it contrasts beautifully with the crisp white ceramics of Imperial's luxurious sanitaryware.

NATURAL BEAUTY

Available in three colours – chalk, sand and charcoal – The Naturals Collection bears the illusion of natural stone courtesy of very modern manufacturing processes and a tumbling procedure that gives each and every tile a unique handmade appearance. The tiles also bear the illusion of real marble with their authentic soft, sugary appearance.

Unlike marble, however, The Naturals Collection features outstanding technical qualities and is free from the chores of maintenance. Resistant to abrasion and corrosion, these through body coloured tiles require no sealing and are virtually non-porous, which helps prevent staining and colour discolouration in years to come.

The Naturals Collection features three standard sizes – 300mm by 300mm, 150mm by 150mm and 100mm by 100mm – and Bullnose Battiscopa skirtings are available in 300mm by 95mm, and in all three colours.

Combining floor tiles from The Naturals Collection with Imperial's range of antique crackle-glaze ceramic wall tiles, particularly the White Linen, Cream Haze and Ivory Shell shades, guarantees a space of real distinction and uniqueness.
